Some of our neighbors have found gold in the bottoms of their wells, but are keeping the matter a secret for fear of a Klondyke rush before they can get their claims "cinched". This news came to our wireless telephone office, the phone having overheard our neighbors talking.

The real editor of this paper has gone east and left the business in the hands of the "devil" You know what this means. You have all perhaps heard of the devil and may presume to know something of his general reportment. But we hope you will find him in a pleasant state of mind should you visit our office at any time. We broke our trident last week in a casual jamboree, though Prosepina still acts amiably having half forgotten the immutable decision of Jupiter and the lamentable death of her mother, Peres. Come and see us in your new flying machine and save paying Phoron his ferrying fee at the river Styx.

The Kansas City Weekly Star will be given free with every Subscription for the Holbrook News from this date. Two good papers for the price of one.

Last Friday night while on his way, our ever efficient liveryman, Mr. B. B. Crosby was met at his gate and highly entertained by something like a dozen or more of those famous little animals called the Skunk. Mr. Crosby says that the little fellows seemed to be more than pleased when he put in his appearance, but they scattered pretty lively when he came forth with his rapid firing machine. He says that he succeeded in putting 3 of the little fellows out of the way, while the rest made a successful retreat to their home, which happens to be located under Mr. Crosby's house.

Mr. Sidney Sapp, departed Tuesday morning on No. 8 for Kansas City, and other eastern points. He expects to be gone for about two weeks.
